

6516209840.txt

I pay for services such as XM Instant Traffic and weather on the XM Satelitte Radio and it should not be up to the National Association of Broadcasters to dictate what I am permitted to hear. If local broadcastrs are fearfull of the competition, they should do a better job to draw viewers instead of trying to eliminate the competition.